Treasurer Report
Reported the booster club has been good stewards of the funds and built up a $30k balance.
New treasurer.
Bank signers have been changed over.
Working on a proposed budget.

Cadet Reports
Introduced themselves and what their roles are for this year.

Instructor Reports
Chief Garcia - 3rd year in this program.
Went over what each level is studying right now.
Principles of air flight and cost of college
UIL eligibility - used for competitions, new standards allow for you to continue to practice even if they are not eligible as long as its only one class and they are willing to go to tutoring.
Polos - Blue (Freshman), Green (Sophomore), Red (Juniors), Black with Cadet Name Embroidered (Seniors)
Emphasized that cadets need to be responsible.
Gave props to cadets, Kemano - Wilcox - Watson - Eddie - Fudikar - Rojan - Miranda - Juno - Juniors
Red and Green Parade - Catch Candy

Colonel Godshall – 1st year at TWHS. Cadets are responsible for so many things but most and best of all they create great morale.
Thanked the booster club for fundraising. Wants the club to think about fundraising as not just yourself but also invite your friends and neighbors. This not only helps with fundraising but military awareness and the JROTC programs.
Suggests that we changed LDR to Leadership and Development Retention Squadron
Understand that cadets will never have a perfect uniform, this is a lesson in personal growth
Highly recommends Admiral McCraven's speech at UT graduation
Battan Memorial March - Memorializes the POW's
If you are available to go on trips or help with after school activities, approach a booster club member or reach out to Col. or Chief.
Teaching the freshman PT and leadership course. Teaching the sophomores cultural awareness and how that is a leadership principle. Teaching the juniors survival skills.
Certified martial arts teach and will be adding a self defense LDR.
LDR's are after school. 9th grade campus shuttle runs 5 days a week. Freshman parents will need to get their kids home or use the ride share list.
Slide shows are on canvas.
