Cadet Reports

K. Pepper reminded us of the upcoming meet this Saturday at Oak ridge. If cadets are attending be at 9th grade campus by 7 am.

Parents will be there by 8 am.

Spencer Snyder- Academic part to the drill meet: 11 am. Not sure we can watch that event.

Paul Sire: Marksmanship Commander. Team has been practicing a lot and feel ready.

Annie Jenkins: Went over goals submitted to headquarters. Cadet Impact Goals: Physically fit, academic success- students should attend 1 tutoring session.

School Impact: After events, school has been destroyed. Cadets will hold clean ups (5) in school this year. Recruitment at Mcc- 5 times at least.

Service before self: 3,250 hours of community service for the unit- that is the goal for this year. Goal is high, but hope to achieve it.

Hope to host community impact events: 4 community focused donation drives.

Instructors

Chief Introduced himself. Competitions are starting, thanked parents for assisting with all of that. Marksmanship had hiccups at first, not is working well. Academic team- thank you.

New competitions: November 5, 2022. Working on a team for the competition.

Registered for Nationals- waiting to see if our school will go.

Flight Academy- Encouraged to apply!

Testing is on its way, very competitive.

Freshman class- WW Presentations went very well today. All ended up with 87%!

Service academy testing- Rigid, structured and rigorous to get in. Some of our students have tried, and it is hard. Academies are looking for a lot of specific skills.

Air Force PT test this coming Friday and following Friday. The cadets will earn some ribbons at the end of year.

Guests coming to junior and senior classes- Talking to the cadets about the JROTC college and all.

Parade- Cadets will be marching in. Encouraged all to attend.

Orienteering meet- 10/22

Halloween coming up, costumes, etc.

Inspection upcoming (Nov- 2) Cadets will have to be here. Mandatory!

Veterans Day- Salute to veterans at the stadium. Cadets will be bussed there.

Run through the woods- Thanksgiving day. Cadets volunteer in the run through the woodlands.

Newsletter is sent out every wednesday. Mil Ball 12/3- will need volunteers. Asked for other caterers, maybe they have their own business. Open to ideas and suggestions.

Waiting for Blue Moon for links for photographs.

President thanked all for attending our meeting.

Meeting adjourned at 7:43 pm.
